

Parents – Please feel free to adapt the tasks to suit your child and present them in any way you like. The homework grid is not compulsory although we do encourage the children to complete a selection of the tasks to support their learning. The children can choose which task they would like to complete.

Learn how to spell the names of weird and wonderful predators of the world (the weirder the better!).	Make a mini-fact file or short digital presentation about your favourite predators.	Make your own non-fiction book about a predatory animal (maybe your pet cat?).
List 5 or more predators into the sub-groups: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Mammals • Birds • Crustaceans • Insects • Arachnids • Reptiles • Fish • Plant 	Make a predator glossary to explain all of the specialist vocabulary from our topic (e.g. Predator, prey, competition, habitat and nutrition).	 <h2 style="font-size: 2em; margin: 0;">Predators</h2>	Use the internet to research what different predators eat. Create food chains for a variety of different predators.
Devise a “What Am I?” quiz about predators and try it out on your friends and family. How many questions does it take for them to get the right answer.		Design your own ultimate predator and write a set of instructions (a programme) for how to care for it.
If you could be a predator for the day, what kind of predator would you be, and why? Where would you live? What features would help you hunt, catch and kill your prey?		Write a short imaginary story or poem from the point of view of either a predator or its prey.
Competition! Design and make your own 3D predator. Use any materials – see: https://www.darrellwakelam.com/downloads for some ideas. Completed projects should be photographed and returned via the Class Dojo by 21st October. There will be a prize for the winner!		Please use TT Rock Stars at least once a week. 	Active learn. Remember to regularly log into Active Learn to access the reading materials and answer the comprehension questions

Spellings

This half term, please learn these new words.

New spellings
Woman
Women
Various Surprise
Though
Although Through Thought
Therefore